Previous meeting – 21st October Public Speaking Competition.

'this close to ending Polio'

GHS English Head Teacher Greg Leighton and Principal, Pat Cavanagh were also there to support the GHS Captains and Vice-Captains in the Competition.

Guests may have outweighed Rotarian’s last week for the Public Speaking Competition.

The participants in the competition and their guests included:

- Ethan Hamilton with parents Don and Helen
- Callan Radford with parents Lyndell and Brett and grandfather, Barry.
- Chloe Haynes with mum, Kristy and nana Marie
- Shannon Baker with mum, Kathy and Aunty Lesley

The adjudicators were Noel Monro, Naomi Kilby and Wendy Hughes and we thank them very much for their time and skills. While they were setting up Brian asked Helena for a quick ‘impromptu’ on last’s week’s events.

“Tuesday she gave her speech at the dinner at the Roundabout Inn. Thursday she did a radio interview which she found a bit awkward and on Sunday Brian took her to see fireflies which were magic!”

Callan’s speech was about the effects of sport on youth development.

Ethan spoke next about the impact of sport on communities.

Chloe spoke on the addiction to technology that the youth of today have and Shannon spoke of the importance of volunteers in our communities.

All students presented excellent speeches and all addressed Rotary’s 4 way test

The Adjudicators hard at work

The students were relaxed after their speeches and at least enjoyed desert before Noel announced the winner, by a small margin, as Chloe Haynes.

The winner, Chloe Haynes

A more relaxed group

Chloe will now participate in the cluster finals in a few weeks time.

Four Way Test

Of all the things we say and do:

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and friendship?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
