Previous Meetings –

29th April:

Valda – Golf day was fabulous, thanks to Chris, Bill, Denver and Pat Radford for organising catering. Folk from Newcastle expressed thanks for companionship, food & great value day. They commended Rotary, the Golf Club & course and enjoyed the novelty events.

Sam – Linda Beesley was interviewed for the Rotary Youth Exchange and she is an excellent candidate. The District interview is at the end of May.

Grahame – the Indian Friendship Exchange visit is over the June long weekend. We need hosts for 5 couples as well as entertainment & transport.

Guest Speaker – Dayna Dremelj, our RYLA student

She was very nervous about attending, but did learn to use a microphone there

She had an AMAZING week. A huge thankyou to Rotary, its been the best experience of her life and she had a fantastic time.

It was about goal setting, teamwork & pushing you out of your comfort zone

The support from others was helpful

32 students attended, aged 18 -25,

Dayna is working in Hospitality and studying Tourism. She met some great friends there.

Motorcycle Muster – 3/4th May

Ray sent some photos (he needs to move his finger from over the lens though)

Gloucester High School has sent a letter of thanks for the contribution towards rent for their Resilience for Learning Hub donated by Gloucester Rotary Club.

Principal, Pat Cavenagh, has also asked if anyone has time (an hour a fortnight) to assist students in the Hub. This could be as a reading tutor, cooking mentor, gardener, someone to talk to or with a particular skill to share. Please contact the school if you are available on 65581605.

Pat also thanked Rotary for the ongoing support for Gloucester High, in general. It is much appreciated.

Four Way Test

Of all the things we say and do:
Is it the truth?
Is it fair to all concerned?
Will it build goodwill and friendship?
Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
