A note from the editor: Well I had the pleasure of attending my first District Assembly this past weekend. What an amazing opportunity, thank you Li for encouraging me to go. Thank you to all the drivers who drove us there and back safely. And thank you to the organisers of the event. For those of you who received directories, my contact details are incorrect. They are as follows:

And now for something completely different...

Last Tuesday we had a board meeting night and there was not much happening. So I thought I might just share a few photos.

If you take any photos and wish they be included whilst out and about at our events, please send them to me. The same with any other flyers. I will do my best to include them.
